

Owen Sound,

Jan. 17, 1915 -

Dear Mrs. Raff:-

Just a few lines. I am very glad to hear that you are feeling better.

I saw the announcement of your engagement in the paper, and I wish you all the joy and happiness that life can give.

would it be too much trouble, if I were to ask you, if you would let me know all the particulars of the situation you were telling me about on the train. In Miss Scot's letter, she did not mention any thing about it. She merely wished me to give up my position here.

I have been laid up with a cold for a week, but am feeling better now.

How is Dorothy keeping. I hope that she is feeling alright.

Mother wishes to be remembered to you. Thank you very much for your trouble. Kindly give my best wishes to Dorothy and my love to yourself.

Your friend,

Nellie Bernstein.
